CRFU County Handbook

Its now time to update our handbook.

Emails will be going out to Club Chairs & Secretaries, with templates for completion.

Once you have had your AGM's please return the forms so we may make ready the handbook for the printers.

The handbook is a useful tool for contacting the right personnel within the clubs, so your prompt action will make sure your details are included.

Any queries please contact our CRFU Handbook Editor: robellcrfu24@gmail.com

U20s South West Trials

Idris Logan - Helston, Will Perkin -St Ives, Pete Harris - St Austell & Jack Statton - Launceston.
Pictured at the recent trials.

Following the final trials at Hartpury College, Gloucestershire on Sunday 9th June, all four Cornwall attendees have been selected for the SW team.

Idris Logan - Helston
Will Perkin - St Ives
Jack Statton - Launceston
Pete Harris - St Austell

In addition to their success Will Perkin has been named as captain of the SW squad and Jack Statton the vice-captain which is a fabulous achievement.

The SW team will now play other RFU regions on the weekend 21 to 23 June in Warwickshire.

Congratulations on their selection and I know the players would like to thank the CRFU and Trelawny's Army for their support throughout the trials.

91' Cornwall Team

Guests of Honour at Redruth

Several members of Cornwall's historic County Championship winning team were present at Redruth on the 1st June as guests of the CRFU.

The players were entertained pre-match by the CRFU and at half-time they paraded around the Redruth pitch, scene of many of their glorious encounters before packed crowds.

The present day supporters gave them a rousing cheer and applauded them, notably in 'Hellfire' corner.

The team also picked
Duncan Tout as
'Tribute Man-of-the-Match'.

Cornwall's 1991 County Championship winning side soak up the applause as they walk the field at half-time.

Codes of Conduct

Another reminder to clubs about Codes of Conduct.

It is still being noted that some Players, Coaches and Spectators have been getting a bit over excited lately, please review your club policies and communicate to your members and supporters.

For information, the following England Rugby links have templates that clubs can use, if required:
